
THE CHANGING LANDSCAPE OF LIFELONG LEARNING

A one day conference to be held at Birkbeck, Central London
Thursday 29th October 2009
10.00 am – 4.30 pm

Lifelong Learning is a rapidly changing landscape. This one day conference will consider the extent and potential impact of these changes, alongside issues which are of relevance to managers and tutors working in lifelong learning settings.

PROFESSOR JOHN ANNETTE

Dean of Faculty, Professor of Citizenship and Lifelong Learning, ProVice Master for Widening Participation and Community Partnerships, Birkbeck, University of London:

The Changing Landscape of Lifelong Learning

ELAINE HAWKINS

Programme Director for Higher Education Introductory Studies, Faculty of Lifelong Learning, Birkbeck College, University of London:

Staff Development in the Changing Landscape: Meeting the Needs of Part Time Teaching Staff

CELIA MORAN

Director of Escalate, University of Bradford:

Work based learning as Lifelong Learning

DR. DAVID LAMBURN

Academic Director, Centre for Lifelong Learning, University of Warwick:

Quality issues: Looking good and being good

KATE THOMAS

Progression Co-ordinator, Western Vocational Lifelong Learning Network/University of the West of England, Bristol:

HE in FE: Professional identity and staff development.

Seminar cost, to include lunch and refreshments: UALL Members - £95, Non-members - £125

To reserve your place please contact Sarah Vaughan on s.vaughan@chester.ac.uk no later than Monday 12 October 2009.