
THE CHANGING LANDSCAPE OF LIFELONG LEARNING

A one day conference to be held at Birkbeck, Central London

Thursday 29th October 2009

10.00 am – 4.00 pm

Programme

Lifelong Learning is a rapidly changing landscape. This one day conference will consider the extent and potential impact of these changes, alongside issues which are of relevance to managers and tutors working in lifelong learning settings.

10.00 Arrival, Coffee and Welcome

10.30 PROFESSOR JOHN ANNETTE

Dean of Faculty, Professor of Citizenship and Lifelong Learning, ProVice Master for Widening Participation and Community Partnerships, Birkbeck, University of London:
The Changing Landscape of Lifelong Learning

11.15 ELAINE HAWKINS

Programme Director for Higher Education Introductory Studies, Faculty of Lifelong Learning, Birkbeck College, University of London:
Staff Development in the Changing Landscape: Meeting the Needs of Part Time Teaching Staff

12.00 CELIA MORAN

Director of Escalate, University of Bradford:
Work based learning as Lifelong Learning

12.45 Lunch

13.45 DR. DAVID LAMBURN

Academic Director, Centre for Lifelong Learning, University of Warwick:
Quality issues: Looking good and being good

14.30 KATE THOMAS

Progression Co-ordinator, Western Vocational Lifelong Learning Network/University of the West of England, Bristol:
HE in FE: Professional identity and staff development.

15.15 Tea

15.30 Panel Discussion and Conclusions

16.00 Depart

Seminar cost, to include lunch and refreshments: UALL Members - £95, Non-members - £125

To reserve your place please contact Sarah Vaughan on s.vaughan@chester.ac.uk no later than Monday 12 October 2009.